Lessons from the World's First Great Statesman.

The doctrine of liberty and equality was first established by Moses, whose wisdom as a statesman, reformer and leader of his people has been excelled by few since his day. "The spirit which animated him in all his thoughts and in all his acts was the love of righteousness. . . . The monuments left by Moses are the political, sanitary, religious and ethical laws, engraved on the hearts and minds of humanity, which have influenced for higher, nobler, purer living untold millions of lives that have passed away, and which are destined to continue influencing for good untold millions of lives yet unborn."—From Harris Weinstock's new book, "Jesus the Jew," 3d edition $1.07, by mail. Funk & Wagnalls Company, Publishers, New York.

HAWAII

"No *** land in all the world has any deep, strong charm for me but that one. *** For me its balmy air, its blushing summer seas flashing in the sun, the pulsing of its surf-beat is in my ear; I can see its garlanded crags, its leaping cascades, its plump palms, drowsing by the shore, its remote summits floating like islands above the cloud-rack."—MARK TWAIN.
